Welcome, Pastor Cheryl Indehar!

Dear Grace members,

All ELCA pastors are called to various ministries, including interim ministry. For the past ten years, I have been an interim minister in SEMN Synod. There are many different congregations that I have had the opportunity to serve – both large and small – within the synod. I am honored to be invited to serve as Interim Associate Pastor at Grace Lutheran Church in Fairmont.

A little background information about me might be helpful. St. Paul is where I was born, raised, educated, and worked. My father was a school social worker and my mother was a traditional housewife. I grew up with three brothers – two older and one younger. As a single person with no children, I am blessed to have seven nieces and nephews, twelve great-nieces and nephews, and two great-great nieces and nephews. The role of “Auntie Cheryl” is one that I have thoroughly relished over the years.

I am a career person. My first career was in law enforcement working as a police officer, then sergeant, for the St. Paul Police Department. Among my eight work assignments over 29 years in the department included patrol, investigation, and administration. While working full-time, I attended Luther Seminary part-time, and it took seven years to complete my Master of Divinity degree. People ask how did I pick these careers? My response is that I didn't pick them, God did. I have tried to be faithful to all the calls and opportunities that God has given me.

On January 19, 2002, I was ordained as an ELCA pastor of word and sacrament. My first call was in St. Paul as a pastor, on a part-time basis, as I continued to work full-time for the police department. Those were some hectic years, and I retired from law enforcement in August 2006.

One of my areas of interest is travel. I have been to Israel, Thailand, India and Tanzania. In the summer of 2009, I took my first trip to Tanzania with a church group from St. Paul Synod. The next spring, I went back to Tanzania and taught theology classes at the University in Iringa for 10 weeks. In 2019, I went again with a group from SEMN Synod to visit our Synodical partners in Tanzania. It is a beautiful country filled with wonderful people. Lately, I have travelled to Hawaii, Florida, New York City and San Francisco. I also like to read, watch movies, cheer for the MN Vikings and MN Wild teams.

I am so looking forward to working with you all as we do God's ministry in this world. Thank you for this wonderful opportunity!

Peace,

Pastor Cheryl Indehar

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Looking for a few welcoming individuals!

We are looking for 4 volunteers to complete our Fellowship and Outreach Teams, two people to join each team. Do you have a flair for welcoming and gathering people? Then we need you to be on our Fellowship Team! Mary Kotewa is our chair person along with Del Prescott as the church council representative. We work on projects like serving coffee and rolls between services and church programs, and help host other events. We need a few more helping hands.

Our Outreach Team is looking for a chair person plus one extra volunteer. Patti Mathews is our church council representative along with Carolyn Bird. Our Outreach Team is working with Heaven's Table gathering food items from Grace and delivering them, and also helping with the ?People Helping People? program, making care bags for community members that need our help. We have also talked about maybe hosting a Progressive Dinner, but need you to be able to do all these fun activities. Please give prayerful consideration to join us! If interested, call the church office or sign up on the board in the church entry.

People Helping People: When the staff receives a guest in need of something more than basic essentials, we would like to share this with a small team of people who can disseminate our People Helping People funds. Requests can be for help with rent, getting a new tire, a bus ticket, or other items above and beyond food. If you would like to be a part of this small group who handles these requests via email, please let the church office know. And, if you would like to donate to this ministry fund, please add People Helping People to the memo line of your check. Thank you.

Pennies Helping People: See our new collection container for People Helping People! It is located by the Stained Glass Window display in the church sanctuary. We are collecting change for immediate daily needs of basic living for those who need our help. Thank you.

Tech Team Members Needed! Streaming our Sunday morning worship services is one of the biggest outreach ministries of Grace. Worship services stream live and are recorded for those to watch in their homes on local TV during the week. Many of our shut-in members and friends appreciate this option as they do not have access to or desire to use a smart phone, tablet, or computer to watch online. However, to make this important ministry work, we need volunteers. If you are willing to help on a Sunday morning, please sign up on the bulletin board in the Gathering Space. You will be trained and be a part of a team. The goal is to have two to three people in the balcony at each service to run sound, stream and record worship, and run slides. Youth, individuals, and families are all welcome to help! Thank you for considering being a part of this very important outreach ministry of Grace!

Ingredients:

- 1 1/3 cups white sugar, divided
- 2 teaspoons ground cinnamon
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 tablespoon baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1 large egg, beaten

Let cool completely. Wrap in plastic wrap before returning to church the following day, Sunday May 7.

Benefit Fundraiser for Gary Ettesvold

Gary is the son of long-time Grace member and organist Sandy Ettesvold and was unexpectedly hospitalized for over 4 months so the family went with no income for that time. He also recently received a new heart and is currently going through rehab. A community benefit fundraiser will be held on Saturday, May 6, from 4:00-7:00 pm at the Fairmont Eagles Club. Martin County Pork Producers will serve pork chops on-a-stick and sides for a free-will donation. Gifted pianist Glenn Henricksen, who has played many times here at Grace, will be providing the entertainment. If you cannot attend, but would like to donate, an account has been set up in the Ettesvold name at State Bank of Fairmont for monetary donations.
Ettesvold family account has been set up at State Bank of Fairmont for monetary donations.

Committee Bake Sale

The Committee organizing Gary Ettesvold's benefit is having a bake sale! Any baked goods can be brought to the Eagles Club Sat. May 6th, starting at 9:00AM. If you're unable to bring to the Eagles Club please call Pam Mosloski 507-848-8643, to help with pick up Friday the 5th in the afternoon or Saturday morning. Thank You so much! We are very grateful to the church ladies and church family for their generosity to the Ettesvold family.

BUSINESS OF GRACE

The March Grace Lutheran Church Council Meeting Minutes will be included in the June issue of Ways of Grace.

Pastor’s Report from Pastor Cheryl:

On April 2, 2023 I was blessed to start my ministry at Grace Lutheran Church. It was a great time to start and be here for Holy Week. I was able to preside at all the services. There were some meetings with Pastor Allison to work out details of each service. I am planning to provide worship at Goldfinch on April 12, 2023, as well as preach Wednesday evening service. I will be preaching on April 16 and 23, 2023.

Pastor Allison and I had a meeting with Deacon about the members that have been visited and those needed to be visited. There are many members who are not able to make it to worship. It was discussed that a Call Care Team be established to try and reach out to everyone. Deacon will be on the Visitation Team and continue to visit some members. I am planning on organizing the list and meeting with the visitation team that meets quarterly.

Besides weekly staff meetings, I am also, planning on attending Church Council, Worship, Youth and Outreach/Fellowship Committees. The SEMN Synod has monthly meetings for Interim Pastors that I attend by zoom and monthly Conference meetings with rostered and lay leaders.

This year for continuing education I am planning on taking classes from the Lombard Mennonite Peace Center. So far, I have already taken the following classes from them: Healthy Congregations; Fractured Lives, Fractured Churches, Healing the Breach, and Conflict Transformation Skills for Churches. This summer I will be taking Mediation Skills Training Institute and this fall Restorative Conversations. I have already taken one class from Dialogue Works on change in churches and will take the last class Ending with Grace. This is the last class of four to teach and work with small rural congregations facing change.

WORDS FOR WORSHIP

Sunday, May 7th - Fifth Sunday of Easter

As we continue to celebrate the fifty days of Easter, today’s gospel includes Jesus’ promise that he goes to prepare a place for his followers in his Father’s house. Our baptism commissions us to share Jesus’ mission in the world. As 1 Peter reminds us, we are a holy people, called to proclaim the one who called us out of darkness into light. In words and deeds we bear witness to the risen Christ—our way, our truth, our life.

First Reading: Acts 7:55-60
Second Reading: 1 Peter 2:2-10
Gospel: John 14:1-14

Sunday, May 14th - Sixth Sunday of Easter,

Jesus does not abandon his followers. Through the Holy Spirit, Jesus comes to abide with his disciples of every generation. As Pentecost draws near, we are reminded that the risen Christ dwells in us as the Spirit of truth. We receive this Spirit in baptism and pray that in our gathering around the Lord’s table the Spirit will transform us to be the body of the risen Christ in the world.

First Reading: Acts 17:22-31
Second Reading: 1 Peter 3:13-22
Gospel: John 14:15-21

Sunday, May 21, 2023 - Seventh Sunday of Easter

In these days between Ascension and Pentecost, we gather with the disciples in the upper room, waiting for the Spirit to transform the church around the world. In today’s gospel Jesus prays for his followers and for their mission in his name. Amid religious, social, and economic divisions, we seek the unity that Jesus had with his Father. Made one in baptism, we go forth to live our faith in the world, eager for the unity that God intends for the whole human family.

First Reading: Acts 1:6-14
Second Reading: 1 Peter 4:12-14; 5:6-11
Gospel: John 17:1-11

Sunday, May 28, 2023 - Day of Pentecost

Pentecost derives its name from the Jewish festival celebrating the harvest and the giving of the law on Mount Sinai fifty days after Passover. Fifty days after Easter, we celebrate the Holy Spirit as God’s presence within and among us. In Acts the Spirit arrives in rushing wind and flame, bringing God’s presence to all people. Paul reminds us that though we each have different capacities, we are unified in the Spirit that equips us with these gifts. Jesus breathes the Holy Spirit on his disciples, empowering them to forgive sin. We celebrate that we too are given the breath of the Holy Spirit and sent out to proclaim God’s redeeming love to all the world.

First Reading: Acts 2:1-21
Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 12:3b-13
Gospel: John 20:19-23

Sunday, June 4, 2023 - The Holy Trinity

Though the word trinity is not found in the scriptures, today’s second reading includes the apostolic greeting that begins the liturgy: The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all. In the gospel Jesus sends his disciples forth to baptize in the name of the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit. More than a doctrine, the Trinity expresses the heart of our faith: we have experienced the God of creation made known in Jesus Christ and with us always through the Holy Spirit. We celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity in word and sacrament, as we profess the creed, and as we are sent into the world to bear witness to our faith.

First Reading: Genesis 1:1--2:4a
Second Reading: 2 Corinthians 13:11-13
Gospel: Matthew 28:16-20

THANK YOU DEACON JENNELLE AND NICKI KUEKER!

From all of us at here at Grace, we thank you both for years of loyal service and wisdom! May God bless you in the years to come!

Farewell

As I sit at my computer desk, I am reflecting over the last 15 years I have served Grace Lutheran Church. I would like to pause and say thank you to everyone who welcomed me into your lives! I have been a part of first baptisms, crying kids not wanting to leave their parents at the beginning of Sunday School, emotional moments growing with Confirmation students, and many other life changing events with your families. In the last year I have been a part of grieving families. I have had to say goodbye to friends due to early departure from this world, including my sister, who passed away in January. Her loss has hit me very hard. Why did God take her and leave me here all alone? A question I will never know the answer to. As I sit at my desk and listen to the voices of children playing outside, I ask you to remember to enjoy the time with family and friends.

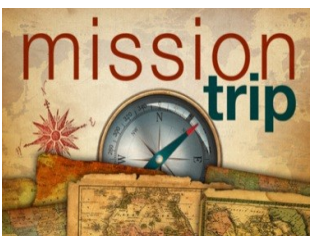

I may not see you every week, but I will be back better and stronger. - Nicki Kueker
